

No Bids Received

Under a construction management arrangement (like under a design / bid / build structure) when no bids are received, the owner is required to re-bid the project after the project advertising requirement is fulfilled. It is illegal to negotiate or randomly select a contractor in this situation to avoid the competitive bidding requirements.