

Owners Furnishing Materials

Recognizing that the furnishing of materials for building construction projects is part of the business management function in construction, which can most efficiently and economically be performed by the Contractor, it is recommended that the purchase of material by the Owner be discouraged.