Shining the Spotlight on Exceptional Field Workers

During Construction Week, Master Builders of Iowa will be spotlighting exceptional field workers on social media and in our communication pieces. We are asking our members to submit your exceptional field staff to have the spotlight on them during Construction Week! We will be posting all submissions sporadically throughout the week on our Facebook and Twitter accounts. We will also create a photo gallery of all submissions on our website and they will be featured in the Winter Edition of the InsideMBI magazine. Simply submit this form and a photo. Please limit your submissions to 5 individuals per company.
